The purpose of the proposed rule is to update the state electrical code and standards for the conduct of electrical work from the 2017 edition of the National Electrical Code to the 2020 edition of National Electrical Code.