NUNC PRO TUNC ORDER FILED JUNE 10, 2022

I find a clerical error(s) exist(s) in the Opinion and Order filed June 3, 2022, in the above-referenced claim, as follows. First, on Page 4, Paragraph 2, Lines 2-3, 5, 6, 7, and 9 (and possibly elsewhere in the opinion), I inadvertently and inaccurately stated that Lieutenant Scott McDaniel was the training instructor on the day of the claimant's compensable injury. That is incorrect. Consequently, any reference to Lt. McDaniel as the training instructor should be stricken from the aforementioned places (as well as anywhere else it may appear in the opinion), and replaced with the term, "the training instructor." Second, on Page 5, Line 6 of the second full paragraph of the opinion where I state, "he and the claimant" should be replaced with the phrase, "the training instructor and the claimant".

Ark. Code Ann. § 11-9-713(d) (2021 Lexis Replacement) authorizes me to correct clerical errors in such circumstances. This is a proper case for the exercise of that authority. Therefore, the Opinion and Order filed June 3, 2022, hereby is modified and amended only to correct the aforementioned inadvertent clerical errors on Pages 4 and 5 of the opinion (and anywhere else they may appear in the opinion). In all other respects – including but not limited to the "FINDINGS

OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW” section of the Opinion and Order filed June 3, 2022, finding the claimant’s left shoulder rotator cuff tear injury to be a “compensable” injury within the meaning of the Arkansas Workers’ Compensation Act (the Act) entitling him to medical benefits as set forth therein – shall remain the same and shall not otherwise be altered, amended, or affected in any way.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
