OPINION FILED APRIL 28, 2026

Hearing before ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE ERIC PAUL WELLS, in Harrison, Boone County, Arkansas.

Claimant represented by EVELYN E. BROOKS, Attorney, Fayetteville, Arkansas; although not present at hearing.

Respondent represented by JARROD S. PARRISH, Attorney, Little Rock, Arkansas.

OPINION

This case comes on for review following a hearing on respondent's Motion to Dismiss.

On October 18, 2023, Evelyn Brooks, claimant's attorney, filed a Form AR-C requesting various compensation benefits in which the claimant alleged an injury to her bilateral hands and wrists on or about September 1, 2023. A hearing was requested regarding issues with medical treatment. However, a hearing was never scheduled, and no further action was taken in this claim.

On December 8, 2025, the respondents filed a Motion to Dismiss requesting that this claim be dismissed for lack of prosecution. A hearing was scheduled for March 26, 2026. Notice of that hearing was sent to the claimant by certified mail, return receipt requested on January 16, 2026. United States Postal Department records indicate that claimant received and signed for the notice on January 22, 2026.

Ms. Brooks indicated by email dated March 17, 2026, that she would waive her appearance at the hearing and further indicated that she had no objection to the Motion to Dismiss “without prejudice.”

Pursuant to 11 CAR §25-110(d) (previously codified as Commission Rule 099.13), the Commission may enter an order dismissing a claim for want of prosecution. After my review of the respondent’s Motion to Dismiss, Ms. Brooks’ response thereto she had no objection to the Motion to Dismiss without prejudice, and the claimant’s failure to appear at the scheduled hearing, as well as all other matters properly before the Commission, I find that claimant has failed to prosecute this claim. Therefore, this claim is dismissed without prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
